

THE SLUM IN THE BUSHES - YUEN LONG #1

A dilapidated house connects with two tin sheds, home to 6 refugees from Pakistan and Bangladesh.
The landlord says he cannot afford any repairs, yet he has rented rooms to ISS clients for three years.

Flood waters often reach one foot in heavy rain.

The structure is so unsafe that it appeared to be falling apart as we stood there in a downpour.

The refugees lament on having money to move out.
